DEDICATION

These words are at best only barren conveyors of love and respect, and it is with great humility that we attempt to put into writing the feelings which adequately express the mark made upon our lives by Fran, Judy, and Sue.

They lived every minute of their lives; they were enthusiastic, young and happy. This is the picture we would keep of them as they sang, cheered and lifted our spirits in the darkest moments.

We therefore feel it only fitting, that this "1964 Hiwassee" be dedicated to the memory of those who devoted their stay at Hiwassee College to bringing happiness and joy to all with whom they associated.

PRESIDENT'S FOREWORD

"Hiwassee 1961" shows a glimpse of the life we have lived and loved this year.

In these pages you will find many personalities of the Administration, Faculty and Students, that make the real Hiwassee. The activities of study, worship, work, and play have enriched the lives of all who have been a part of this large Hiwassee family. The future will be brighter and better because of the wonderful experiences we have had together.

COACH DWAIN FARMER

The basketball outlook at Hiwassee was very bright for the 1960-61 season, even though there were only two returning players from last year's fine squad. The returning men, Lon Marcum and Ralph Devor, both guards, were named co-captains of the team.

Coach Farmer was not caught short on guards, as freshmen Eddie Smith, Danny Schultz, Hugh Watson, Von Sanders, and transfer Ronnie Morton were added to the team.

The Tigers probably boast the tallest frontline that the school has ever had. Sam Rowland, Bill Woosley, Eddie Baker, and Tommy Anderson hold down the forward post, and all stand 6'2" or more.

Not to be sold short is the fine group of pivotmen who will see battle for the Tigers this year. Freshmen Jim Stidham, Kenneth Loftice, and transfer Jack Henry will see lots of action.
